MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Richard J. Kerr
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Weekly Report for Period Ending 21 March 1986

3. A representative from OL met with [] a sculptor/artist employed by [] on 14 March to discuss the memorial plaque project. [] was advised that this project, although unclassified, was considered somewhat sensitive. The purpose of the memorial plaque is to honor non-Agency people who have died in the line of duty supporting the Agency's mission. The planned location of the finished project is the main entrance foyer of the existing Headquarters Building. [] was asked to provide design ideas and recommendations concerning the medium to be used, the inscription, size, location and symbology appropriate to the design. Based upon this meeting, the artist will work up some samples and prepare an artistic proposal and an associated cost estimate, which he will present in approximately 30 days for the Agency's consideration.

17. Student demonstrations continue with our New York recruiter reporting a very unpleasant experience at Hunter College where he was scheduled to interview 15 DI applicants. Confronted by 25 shouting and screaming demonstrators condemning CIA's Central American involvement, the recruiter was unable to conduct the interviews; although the Placement Directors tried to dissuade the protesters from infringing on the rights of the students who were there to discuss employment. Some of the demonstrators photographed and followed the recruiter for almost a mile on foot, harassing him all the way. The Office of Security was advised of this activity.

18. The first of three occupationally specific ads designed to attract educators/teachers to the Career Training Program and for DO direct hire appeared in the 16 March edition of The Washington Post. Other ads, targeted at the legal profession, will be appearing in the Legal Times of Washington and the American Bar Association Journal in the immediate future.

21. The pride of serving with the Agency goes beyond our employees and often extends to family members. This was recently reflected when a widow, out of respect for her husband's patriotic service with this Agency, sought and obtained approval to use the design of the Agency seal or the Distinguished Intelligence Cross on her late husband's headstone.

25. The annual U.S. Savings Bond Drive will be conducted from 5-30 May 1986. An OP representative attended the 1986 Savings Bond Kickoff Rally on 12 March which was hosted by The Honorable Catherine D. Ortega, Treasurer of the United States, and featured The Honorable Casper W. Weinberger, Secretary of Defense, as keynote speaker. The Agency's kick-off rally is scheduled for 2 May 1986. The selling feature for U.S. Savings Bonds this year is a 7.5% interest floor despite declining interest rates overall.

27. Last week the Federal Women's Program of the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity/OP sponsored the celebration of "National Women's History Week." The Honorable Sandra Day O'Connor, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, was the special guest speaker for this celebration of women. She spoke to a full capacity audience on women in history who have inspired her career in the legal profession, relating her own experiences as a woman, mother and spouse, and the "ups and downs" on her way to the position of the first woman Supreme Court Justice in the history of America.
